2 Chronicles

The Exile

(The Prelude)

12At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of Hezekiah's illness. 13Hezekiah received the envoys and showed them all that was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices and the fine olive oil—his armory and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

14Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did those men say, and where did they come from?" "From a distant land," Hezekiah replied. "They came from Babylon."

15The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?"

"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."

16Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the Lord: 17*The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the Lord. 18And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.*"

20As for the other events of Hezekiah's reign, all his achievements and how he made the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? 21Hezekiah rested with his ancestors. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

The Exile

'But because our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.

Ezra 5:12

4 "Because they have forsaken Me and have made this an alien place and have burned sacrifices in it to other gods, that neither they nor their forefathers nor the kings of Judah had ever known, and because they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent

5 and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal, a thing which I never commanded or spoke of, nor did it ever enter My mind;

7 "I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those who seek their life; and I will give over their carcasses as food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth.

13 "The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like the place Topheth, because of all the houses on whose rooftops they burned sacrifices to all the heavenly host and poured out drink offerings to other gods."""

Jeremiah 19:4,5,7,13

The Exile

1 When Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,

2 Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put him in the stocks that were at the upper Benjamin Gate, which was by the house of the LORD.

4 "For thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I am going to make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; and while your eyes look on, they will fall by the sword of their enemies So I will give over all Judah to the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them away as exiles to Babylon and will slay them with the sword.

5 'I will also give over all the wealth of this city, all its produce and all its costly things; even all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give over to the hand of their enemies, and they will plunder them, take them away and bring them to Babylon.

6 'And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity; and you will enter Babylon, and there you will die and there you will be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have falsely prophesied.'"

Jeremiah 20:1,2,4,5,6

The Exile

The main cause of the exile is in the phrase, "The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like the place Topheth, because of all the houses on whose rooftops they burned sacrifices to all the heavenly host and poured out drink offerings to other gods." Because of their worship of foreign/false gods the Jews were to be conquered, killed, and enslaved by the Babylonians.

The primary cause of the exile to Babylon, meaning what started it all is in this phrase, "They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them." King Hezekiah showed a total lack of wisdom when dealing with the Babylonian emissaries years earlier. The King was not alone in this misguided, lackadaisical behavior. The king obviously had courtiers with him as he went about revealing all their treasures.

Perhaps this sort of careless behavior at the highest levels is indicative of problems at every level and portends the decay of a society. Meaning if the people at the top are corrupted, perhaps so are most of the rest of the people already. Whatever the case the people of Judah were taken into captivity by the Babylonians because the Jews were a fractured society, with many gods instead of God. This upset God so much He disciplined them with the exile.

Conditions during the exile

Ezekiel 12:13

Being blinded

"I will also spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare And I will bring him to Babylon in the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, though he will die there.

Apparently, the blinding of male captives was commonplace. Upon investigating there are no real records as to how this was accomplished, but the most common method of blinding in history is gouging out the eyes.

2 Kings 20:16-18, 20-21

16Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the Lord: 17The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the Lord. 18And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

The King was informed that his own descendants would be made into eunuchs. These are men who have had at least their testicles removed, if not all their genitals. These men were usually made to guard women as they had no means of getting them pregnant.

Esther

15 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all them that looked upon her. 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen..."

Esther 2: 15-17

The King of Babylonia Artaxerxes married a Jewish woman named Esther, who was the niece of Mordecai, and whose parents were both deceased. The king divorced his previous wife Vashti, because she would not have sexual intercourse with him. Virginal women were presented to him and he chose Esther above all the other virgins.

Esther

8 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. 9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. 10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. 11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. 12 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. 13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

Esther 3: 8-13

At a certain point in time during the exile the Jews were becoming independent and making powerful enemies. These enemies convinced King Ahasuerus (Artaxerxes) to declare a public genocide against the Jews of the realm.

1 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. 3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: 4 for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

Esther 7: 1-4

Queen Esther convinces the King in front of the entire court at a banquet she has ordered to be prepared, specifically including the adversaries of the Jewish people, to rescind his order against the Jews and to hang the main conspirator Haman. Her uncle Mordecai is given over lordship of the entire affair.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: 11 wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,

Esther 8: 10-11

Esther

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. 16 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor. 17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Esther 8: 15-17

This says many people became Jews. This means that the Jews were accepting and even encouraging people to join their numbers. There is no referenced to a preference of male or female in this conversion, or that there would be any difference denoted in between the convert and the original at all. It is simply stated that many people of the land became Jews. So to say that one is only a Jew if they have a Jewish mother or to even discount a person who is a Jewish convert goes directly against the spirit of the current Jewish people's favorite holiday. A holiday that is not in fact commanded by God to be celebrated, unlike Passover and Yom Kippur. The oddest thing about the Book of Esther is there are no miracles in it at all and Purim is not a holiday commanded by God, yet it is still in the Bible.

The Secret

The Code of Jewish Law clearly states that a child of a Jewish mother is Jewish, regardless of the father's lineage (or whatever else may show up in a DNA test), while the child of a non-Jewish mother is not Jewish.¹ Matrilineal descent has been a fundamental principle of Torah since the Jewish people came into existence.

(If your father is Jewish, but not your mother, please see To a Child of a Jewish Father.)

Some aspects of Judaism, like the priesthood, are clearly patrilineal (see Patrilineal Descent in Judaism, below).

But the entry line into Jewishness has always been through the mother—or conversion.

https://www.chabad.org/library/article_cdo/aid/601092/jewish/Why-Is-Jewishness-Matrilineal.htm

The logic the synagogue is using is that if a baby is born to a Jewish mother the baby is automatically Jewish, if born to a Jewish father the baby is not automatically Jewish, and if one converts one becomes Jewish. The truth is being born into a Jewish family makes you Jewish, converting to Judaism or Christianity makes you Jewish, and many people have Jewish blood, knowingly or unknowingly. There are a lot more “Jewish” people than people realize. The original Jews are gone into the people like dandelions. It is impossible that any person on Earth, or at least most everybody, is not related to the 3 million Jews who fled Egypt 3,500 years ago and have dispersed.

The Secret

The Hang Up

Did Moses Marry Out?

Here's another common question: We see many figures in the Hebrew Bible that married out of their people. Joseph married an Egyptian woman. Moses married a Midianite.¹⁴ King David took a Philistine wife and King Solomon also took wives who were not from the Jewish people. Why is there no mention of any conversion?

https://www.chabad.org/library/article_cdo/aid/601092/jewish/Why-Is-Jewishness-Matrilineal.htm#The 1Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

Exodus 3:1

Midian is a place as well as a people and later we find out Jethro and his daughter are Cushites, which means negroes. Jethro is the priest of God in Midian and later offer sacrifices to God with Moses in the wilderness and takes his household with the Israelites into the wilderness,.

The Secret

²⁴And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him. ²⁵Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me. ²⁶So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

¹Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite. ²“Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?” they asked. “Hasn’t he also spoken through us?” And the LORD heard this.

Numbers 12: 1-2

¹⁰ And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam became leprous, as white as snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.

Numbers 12:10

The people of Israel grumble about Moses marrying a Cushite woman and this culminates in Aaron and Miriam complaining against Moses. God hears this and smites Miriam with His mark. She becomes blasted white with leprosy. This is the mark of God to be white, not pale, but like a sheet of paper. White, like leprosy. That is how everyone who is given the mark of God is marked. By being made white. This marking is ideally a warning for others not to kill these people, such as in the case of Cain. Therefore there is this prejudice towards lighter people over darker people. Really pale people tend to be striking to everyone.

Purim

1 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;) 2 the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people. 3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater. 5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

Esther 9 :1-5

As the king's command spreads across the empire the enemies of the Jews believe they the upper hand, but in fact did not. When all the Jews gather together in the cities they rule over their enemies. The Jews seek out those who sought them harm and kill them but take nothing of theirs.

The Secret

13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, "Please, God, heal her!"

14 The LORD replied to Moses, "If her father had spit in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back." 15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

Numbers 12:13-15

Unlike our understanding of leprosy, or what we call Hansen's disease, the mark of God involved a form of skin "disease" that made one white as snow, a precursor of the signs of leprosy. However if this condition persisted with out any ill effects then the person was considered clean and free of disease

Truthfully and objectively we could understand Miriam being healed as being made whole again. Moses looks upon Miriam as if she has a disease, but God says simply," Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back." God does not say He will change her condition at all. Perhaps she is blasted white for her hubris towards the black woman. The Torah says this about the mark of God: "Then the Lord put a mark on Cain so that no one who found him would kill him" (Genesis 4:15-16).

No one ever seeks to kill a leper and to even get into physical contact with a leper is to invite a plague upon yourself and even your offspring and so on. There is no more effective warning amongst primitive people.

The Secret

The mark of God is not the secret that I have come to reveal here , the secret is the Jewish tradition is designed to undermine every ethnic group it encounters. This is mostly because these people are pagan unbelievers in general, and as there are no more Judean conquests, this is how the people of God act towards their perceived enemies. To undermine people is to challenge their logic and belief systems.

Long ago the Jews had genealogy, but now they do not. The current Jews claim genealogy to the 16th century. The claims beyond this are simply far-fetched claims of people from the 16th century saying they were related to biblical people from before Christ, with no real evidence to back it up other than that they were Jewish.

Conservative Jewish Theologian Rabbi Louis Jacobs suggests that the marriage practices of the Jewish community were re-stated as a law of matrilineal descent in the early Tannaitic Period (c. 10-70 CE).

This was obviously not only during the Roman occupation of Israel, but also the time of Christ. There is only the lineage of Joseph listed regarding Jesus, and the lineage of Mary is not listed at all. So is this Rabbi mistaken? This is just the suggestion from Jacobs, truly this is no fact and easily disputed. There is absolutely no scripture in the Bible that gives us any other instructions as far as lineage goes , except for patrilineal lineage. Even Jesus, the son of God, traces his lineage through his earthly father Joseph, who was basically his foster father. Keeping this in mind, adopted children are the real children of their adopted parents, and we who follow the teaching of the Messiah call God our spiritual father.

The Secret

In the Talmud,⁸ we find that Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai provides support for the rule of matrilineal descent from a passage in Deuteronomy.

In Deuteronomy 7:4, the generation that is about to enter the Land of Canaan is told:

You shall not intermarry with them; you shall not give your daughter to his son, and you shall not take his daughter for your son. For he will turn away your son from following Me, and they will worship the gods of others, and the wrath of G-d will be kindled against you, and He will quickly destroy you.⁹

Shimon bar Yochai, also known by his acronym Rashbi was a 2nd-century tannaitic sage in ancient Judea, said to be active after the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 CE. He was one of the most eminent disciples of Rabbi Akiva and attributed by many Orthodox Jews with the authorship of the Zohar, the chief work of Kabbalah.

His is a rabbinical misinterpretation, but he is a second century man. The people of Israel are being told not to intermarry with the people of the land of Canaan, as they are about to enter that land and kill them all. If they do not follow God's commands, then yes, the sons of Israel will follow the gods of the fathers of their foreign wives. The Canaanites were a powerful and charismatic people, who were engaged in the abominable things that causes God to seek out the offender's destruction. They could not very well intermarry with these people, could they? In fact God threatens to destroy the Israelites if they intermarry with the Canaanites, so we can understand that the women will be destroyed as well for this transgression, not create a matrilineal line of half-Jewish Canaanites.

The Secret

1When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I’ll die!”

2Jacob became angry with her and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has kept you from having children?”

3Then she said, “Here is Bilhah, my servant. Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and I too can build a family through her.”

Genesis 30: 1-3

Jacob knew how to breed to His advantage

Jacob replied. “But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them: 32Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages. 33And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-colored, will be considered stolen.”

34“Agreed,” said Laban. “Let it be as you have said.” 35That same day he removed all the male goats that were streaked or spotted, and all the speckled or spotted female goats (all that had white on them) and all the dark-colored lambs

37 Jacob, however, took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white stripes on them by peeling the bark and exposing the white inner wood of the branches. 38 Then he placed the peeled branches in all the watering troughs, so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat and came to drink, 39 they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted. 40 Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-colored animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban's animals. 41 Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so they would mate near the branches, 42 but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob. 43 In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

Purim

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, 17 on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

Esther 9: 16-18

Purim is a Jewish observance on the 14th day of the month of Adar in the Jewish calendar, which is in February or March in the Gregorian calendar. It commemorates a time when Jewish people were saved from death in the Persian empire around the fourth century BCE, according to the Book of Esther.

End of Exile

Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying, Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah. Who is among you of all His people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is God), which is in Jerusalem. And whoever is left in any place where he dwells, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the freewill offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.

Ezra 1: 1-4

About a century after the exile began King Cyrus is converted to the faith and orders all of the people of God to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem and gives them their freedom and gifts of gold and silver besides livestock and other goods. These gifts are in addition to the offering the King makes to the house of God.

The Synagogue

During the Babylonian captivity (586–537 BCE)[citation needed] the men of the Great Assembly[dubious – discuss] formalized and standardized the language of the Jewish prayers. Prior to that people prayed as they saw fit, with each individual praying in his or her own way, and there were no standard prayers that were recited.

Synagogues in the sense of purpose-built spaces for worship, or rooms originally constructed for some other purpose but reserved for formal, communal prayer, however, existed long before the destruction of the Second Temple.[2][unreliable source?] The earliest archaeological evidence for the existence of very early synagogues comes from Egypt, where stone synagogue dedication inscriptions dating from the 3rd century BCE prove that synagogues existed by that date.[3][unreliable source?] More than a dozen Jewish (and possibly Samaritan) Second Temple era synagogues have been identified by archaeologists in Israel and other countries belonging to the Hellenistic world.[2]

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Synagogue>

19“Sir,” the woman said, “I can see that you are a prophet. 20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem.”

21“Woman,” Jesus replied, “believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. 22You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. 23Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. 24God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth.”

The Babylonian Synagogue

The synagogue as a permanent institution originated probably in the period of the Babylonian captivity, when a place for common worship and instruction had become necessary. The great prophet, in the second part of the Book of Isaiah, in applying the phrase "house of prayer" to the Temple to be built at Jerusalem (Isa. lvi. 7 and, according to the very defensible reading of the LXX., also lx. 7), may have used a phrase which, in the time of the Exile, designated the place of united worship; this interpretation is possible, furthermore, in such passages as Isa. lviii. 4. The term was preserved by the Hellenistic Jews as the name for the synagogue (προσευχή = οἶκος προσευχῆς; comp. also the allusion to the "proseucha" in Juvenal, "Satires," iii. 296).

After the return from the Captivity, when the religious life was reorganized, especially under Ezra and his successors, congregational worship, consisting in prayer and the reading of sections from the Bible, developed side by side with the revival of the cult of the Temple at Jerusalem, and thus led to the building of synagogues.

The Babylonian Talmud

The Talmud (/ˈtɑːlmʊd, -məd, ˈtæl-/; Hebrew: תַּלְמוּד ,romanized: talmūd) is the central text of Rabbinic Judaism and the primary source of Jewish religious law (halakha) and Jewish theology.[1][2][3] Until the advent of modernity, in nearly all Jewish communities, the Talmud was the centerpiece of Jewish cultural life and was foundational to "all Jewish thought and aspirations", serving also as "the guide for the daily life" of Jews.[4]

The term "Talmud" normally refers to the collection of writings named specifically the Babylonian Talmud (Talmud Bavli), although there is also an earlier collection known as the Jerusalem Talmud (Talmud Yerushalmi).[5] It may also traditionally be called Shas (ש"ס), a Hebrew abbreviation of shisha sederim, or the "six orders" of the Mishnah.

The Talmud has two components; the Mishnah (Hebrew: משנה , c. 200), a written compendium of Rabbinic Judaism's Oral Torah; and the Gemara (Hebrew: גמרא , c. 500), an elucidation of the Mishnah and related Tannaitic writings that often ventures onto other subjects and expounds broadly on the Hebrew Bible. The term "Talmud" may refer to either the Gemara alone, or the Mishnah and Gemara together.

The entire Talmud consists of 63 tractates, and in standard print is 2,711 double-sided folios.[6] It is written in Mishnaic Hebrew and Jewish Babylonian Aramaic and contains the teachings and opinions of thousands of rabbis (dating from before the Common Era through to the fifth century) on a variety of subjects, including halakha, Jewish ethics, philosophy, customs, history, and folklore, and many other topics. The Talmud is the basis for all codes of Jewish law, and is widely quoted in rabbinic literature.

The Babylonian Talmud

⁵ Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, ² “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

³ Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴ For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’^[a] and ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother is to be put to death.’^[b] ⁵ But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’ ⁶ they are not to ‘honor their father or mother’ with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. ⁷ You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

⁸ “These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

⁹ They worship me in vain;
their teachings are merely human rules.^[c]”

Matthew 15:1-9

The Babylonian Talmud

The explanation for this passage is really very decisive. The elders of the synagogue are accusing the Messiah of allowing his disciples to violate the tradition of the elders of washing hands before eating. There is no passage in scripture specifying the washing of hands before eating, and the Torah was written in the wilderness where it is impossible that everyone was washing their hands before they ate. Also, it is unreasonable to believe that your hands are so dirty by normal activity that they are unclean to you. However, even if your hands were covered in mud and you ate with them, you would be made “unclean.” When one really analyzes it, it is ridiculously silly to think your hands are unclean, just because you are using them. I wish everyone washed their hands after they used the bathroom, more so than before they eat! Seriously, if your hands are dirty, you should wash them, whether you are going to eat or not. If they are not dirty, then you do not need to wash them before putting them in your mouth.

The tradition of tithing to the synagogue is also not in scripture. In fact tithes were only to go to the temple in Jerusalem. This tithing is designed as a sort of safety net against hard times.

Malachi 3:8-10 New International Version (NIV)

⁸ “Will a mere mortal rob God? Yet you rob me.

“But you ask, ‘How are we robbing you?’

“In tithes and offerings. ⁹ You are under a curse—your whole nation—because you are robbing me. ¹⁰ Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this,” says the LORD Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it.

The Babylonian Talmud

Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴ For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’^[a] and ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother is to be put to death.’^[b] ⁵ But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’ ⁶ they are not to ‘honor their father or mother’ with it.

The reason we are given in the commandments to benefit from honoring our parents is long life in the land we are given. It can explain this by saying how a family dynamic works.

When you are young people take care of you. When you are an adult you take care of children and elders. When you are an elder you take care as best as you can but will always need the help of the adults. The adults work to feed themselves, children, and elders. As the adults took care of the children, when the children become adults, they take care of the elders. This all requires following the commandments, otherwise the entire family system breaks down and parents and children become enemies. As simple as this seems, this is not the “nuclear” family, this is dynastic behavior.

⁸ “‘These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

⁹ They worship me in vain;
their teachings are merely human rules.’^[c]”

Mathew 15:8:9

The Babylonian Talmud

The Talmud is the compilation of more than a thousand Rabbi's interpretations of the Torah, which are the Books of Moses, sometimes called the law, sometimes the teachings. They are Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy(which means over again). Two of these books cover the same material, Leviticus and Deuteronomy. Leviticus is primarily for the Clergy, and Deuteronomy is for everyone.

For these five books there is a body of text from thousands of Rabbis applying their lives experience and their local traditions to their interpretation of what is essentially called the teachings. Jesus said call no one teacher because you have one teacher, the messiah, and call no one rabbi. This is like asking everyone not to listen to the rabbi's teachings, specifically.

These traditions are exactly the man-made traditions that these rabbis attempted to use to mollify their consciences as they went about living a lifestyle of violating God's commands. We are given to believe that the spirit of God's commands is this: Love God with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength (for He is the author of your soul) and do to/for each other what you would do to/for yourself. The first means Love/Fear god and obey His commands, the second means be proactive for one another. Prevention is better than repair.

The ultimate violation of the rabbi is this: "Be kind to the alien amongst you for you to were once aliens in the land of Egypt." Ultimately the rabbi appears intractable. An inscrutable stranger who is his own stereotype and language. The reality is that the rabbi is no priest, but only an organizer of Jewish worship and interpreter of Jewish laws and especially traditions. The rabbi is outside of the law as the God of Israel says this,: "I will make you into a kingdom of priests."

That meant every man could officiate his own ceremonies and worship as well as bring gentiles into the fold, his true purpose. That is why followers of Jesus Christ are so dynamic in converting others and rabbis, clinging to their myriad traditions that are not in God's commands and their multiple interpretations of the same text, are not.

The Spirit of Babylon

11 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech. ² As people moved eastward,^[a] they found a plain in Shinar^[b] and settled there.

³ They said to each other, “Come, let’s make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They used brick instead of stone, and tar for mortar. ⁴ Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves; otherwise we will be scattered over the face of the whole earth.”

⁵ But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower the people were building. ⁶ The LORD said, “If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. ⁷ Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other.”

⁸ So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city. ⁹ That is why it was called Babel^[c]—because there the LORD confused the language of the whole world. From there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

Genesis 11: 1 - 9

The Spirit of Babylon

How does the synagogue keep the spirit of Babylon alive? What exactly is even meant by that expression, “keeping the spirit alive?” What is “Babylon,” exactly?

Babylon is rooted in Babel, the ancient tower that Nimrod erected to the Heavens, where all tribes gathered and spoke the same language. Because they all spoke the same language, they were capable of (doing) anything. This so upset the Lord that He sent His angels to tear the tower (town) down (burned/destroyed) and scatter(kill) the tribes in every direction. The parenthesis are added to enhance your understanding of the situation. There was a direct conflict and humanity was scattered. One can only wonder how they offended God so much. It is not because God was worried man would have some wondrous achievement, it was because all the different tribes mingling together caused some kind of behavior displeasing to God. We have the commandments of the Torah, so we can surmise the violations that are worthy of death are the ones the people of Babel were guilty of. Because we all have souls and spirits and there are real demons, the spiritual evil they were capable of was reaching the attention of Heaven. When we say someone is “capable of anything,” we always mean it in a bad way. The spirit of Babylon is rooted in the spirit of the Tower of Babel.

The Tower of Babel’s characteristics are: All these tribes do not have a common God, they are not calling on the name of the Lord. They are trying to reach Heaven in a manner displeasing to God, by building a monument, which God hates. We can surmise they were offering things to Heaven in ignorance in every direction, since they were building towards it. They were probably in violation of all or most of Gods commands overall.

The Spirit of Babylon

“Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)”

Esther 1:1

Another characteristic of Babylon is that it is composed of a myriad of different peoples. These are called provinces and we know that they are vast and composed of different peoples and they must all be represented at the capital. They stretch from Africa to Asia. It is important to note these two places were joined previously by this ancient empire thousands of years ago.

"Now behold, here comes a troop of riders, horsemen in pairs." And one said, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; And all the images of her gods are shattered on the ground."

Isaiah 21:9

Babylon has many gods instead of a single God that they all have agreed upon. It is impossible that they are all correct and the religious system of Babylon is overall a sham. There are priesthoods of different gods competing for followers and sacrifices would be being offered to “gods” which are in fact demons.

"They sacrificed to demons who were not God, To gods whom they have not known, New gods who came lately, Whom your fathers did not dread.

Deuteronomy 32:17

The Spirit of Babylon

As we can see Babylon has no God but the strength of its own arms. Whomever is most powerful or cunning the moment is the dominant one and this is a continuous struggle. This is an exact representation of the reason there is strife in Heaven. This is the exact reason the “tower” of Babel was destroyed. The quotations are implying there is a much more profound meaning. To be a myriad of people sacrificing to a myriad of idols and everyone having souls and spirits becomes a huge burden to the Heavens. This is the essence of Babylon. This is the reason for all of the devastating prophecies against Babylon:

“Declare among the nations.

Lift up a signal [to spread the news]—publish and proclaim it,

Do not conceal it; say,

‘Babylon has been taken,

Bel [the patron god] has been shamed, ^[c]Marduk (Bel) has been shattered.

Babylon’s images have been shamed, her [worthless] idols have been thrown down.’

The rise of "Marduk is closely connected with the political rise of Babylon from city-state to the capital of an empire."
[13] Marduk became the supreme god after the reign of Nebuchadnezzar I in the twelfth century and, therefore, replaced Enlil.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marduk>

Marduk

To prepare for battle, he makes a bow, fletches arrows, grabs a mace, throws lightning before him, fills his body with flame, makes a net to encircle Tiamat within it, gathers the four winds so that no part of her could escape, creates seven nasty new winds such as the whirlwind and tornado, and raises up his mightiest weapon, the rain-flood. Then he sets out for battle, mounting his storm-chariot drawn by four horses with poison in their mouths. In his lips he holds a spell and in one hand he grasps a herb to counter poison.

First, he challenges the leader of the Anunnaki gods, the dragon of the primordial sea Tiamat, to single combat and defeats her by trapping her with his net, blowing her up with his winds, and piercing her belly with an arrow.

Then, he proceeds to defeat Kingu, who Tiamat put in charge of the army and wore the Tablets of Destiny on his breast, and "wrested from him the Tablets of Destiny, wrongfully his" and assumed his new position. Under his reign humans were created to bear the burdens of life so the gods could be at leisure.

Marduk was depicted as a human, often with his symbol the snake-dragon which he had taken over from the god Tishpak. Another symbol that stood for Marduk was the spade.

Marduk was a warrior god of the middle east and has a huge body of lore concerning himself , creation, and a dragon called Tiamat. Also other personages from ancient times after involved such as Enlil and Enki. The reality is more than likely Marduk was an ancient warrior-king akin to our idea of Conan the barbarian and made into a legend and then deified. The dragon Tiamat that he fought was probably a combination of enemies or a riddle for the rest of everyone else to solve. Tiamat is definitely an historical marker for everyone to think about as we all know there is no such thing as dragons and obviously people had this same understanding in the past.

The Spirit of Babylon

- Multiple gods
- Multiple peoples/tribes/nations
- Infinite military (relatively) for conquest
- Everyone speaks the same language, Babylonian
- There appears to be the prostitution of virgins (even) (see Xerxes)
- Babylon is an oppressor of Israel and Judea historically.
- Babylon has multiple patron gods including Marduk.
- Babylon can't be beat. Its only god is the strength of its own arms and its immigration never stops.

The Spirit of Babylon

How does that effect us?

The spirit of something is the direction it is going in.

In essence our spirit is our attitude, which really means the (spiritual) direction we are head in.

This grows and is manifest.

The Spirit of Babylon

1 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits by many waters.

2 With her the kings of the earth committed adultery, and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries.”

3 Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries.

5 The name written on her forehead was a mystery: BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God’s holy people, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was greatly astonished.

The prostitutes are multiple, from people to American resources, the abominations of the Earth include everything from atom bombs, which are made from star wormwood (the bones of the sun)and according to scripture the abomination that causes desolation, and homosexuals, which are specifically called an abomination in scripture.

The Spirit of Babylon

BABYLON THE GREAT THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

²² You shall not lie with a man as one does with a woman. It is an abomination.
Leviticus 18:22

²³ You shall not lie with an animal to defile yourself, nor shall any woman lie with an animal. It is a perversion.
Leviticus 18:23

As we can see, the commandments given by God are being directly disobeyed by the American community, and New York city would be the capital of it. New York city has the largest stock market, the NYSE, an extremely large population (@ 9 million), every nation is represented there, New Yorkers all speak English, or are learning it, The city can be seen from the ocean by merchant ships, unlike most other cities people have implied are Babylon the Great (such as Rome). The USA has made a major endorsement of being pro-homosexual, even in the face of this knowledge.

Babylon the great

The Description of Babylon the great begins like this in the Revelation of Jesus Christ:

18 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendor. ² With a mighty voice he shouted:

“Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!”^[a]

She has become a dwelling for demons and a haunt for every impure spirit,
a haunt for every unclean bird,
a haunt for every unclean and detestable animal.

Revelation 18:18

Most importantly it is to note that Babylon is totally forsaken and become haunted by every horrible thing possible.

Babylon the great

The prostitutes

³ For all the nations have drunk the maddening wine of her adulteries.
The kings of the earth committed adultery with her,
and the merchants of the earth grew rich from her excessive luxuries.”

Revelation 18:3

In this scripture all of the nations are literally insanely drunk on the “adulteries” of the prostitutes, which means their proliferation of prostitution and pornography. The very proliferation of these things proves the nations have a high demand for the adulteries themselves. This is totally true of American and especially Caucasian pornography and prostitution. The most powerful men on Earth have committed adulteries with these prostitutes, and their “managers” have grown rich from her physical charms.

Babylon the great

The prostitutes

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

“Come out of her, my people,^[b]

so that you will not share in her sins,

so that you will not receive any of her plagues;

⁵ for her sins are piled up to heaven,

and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶ Give back to her as she has given;

pay her back double for what she has done.

Pour her a double portion from her own cup. (This is a sexual reference)

⁷ Give her as much torment and grief

as the glory and luxury she gave herself.

In her heart she boasts,

‘I sit enthroned as queen.

I am not a widow;^[c]

I will never mourn.’

⁸ Therefore in one day her plagues will overtake her:

death, mourning and famine.

She will be consumed by fire,

for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

Babylon the great Buying and selling men's souls The stock market

Babylon the great

11And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: 12The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, 13And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

Revelation 18: 11-13

How is it possible to buy a man's soul? The very fact that the scripture states, "...and the souls of men.", means that it is possible for a man's souls to be bought and sold. Scripture tells us, "28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell." (Mathew 18:28). So how is this possible? The person must be selling their own soul. Imagine winning big in the stock market, never tithing or donating anything, and then losing it all in the stock market. How much is too much money? When are we a human beings in danger of forfeiting our salvation over wealth? Jesus said this about wealth and people do not seem to be able to accept that the pursuit of wealth is like running away from God.

The Pursuit of Wealth

²¹ Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

²² When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.

²³ Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴ Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” Matthew 19: 21-24

In this scripture a rich man is being made example of by the messiah. The messiah knows that he is addressing a young, rich man. The young man is asking Jesus how he can obtain eternal life and Jesus says he must follow god’s commands, but if he wants to get into heaven, then he must give his wealth away to the poor, which will be like storing it in heaven, and follow him. There are several invaluable wisdoms in this scripture. The main one I have found is that by giving money to the poor, we are storing “money” for ourselves in Heaven! That is super powerful information. This also shows us how dangerous and powerful money actually is. Most people think money represents the ability to purchase goods and services, but money that is in circulation represents previous labors, literally blood, sweat, and tears. Much could be said about the money in circulation. Regardless Jesus says that in order for a rich person to get into Heaven they have to give their wealth to the poor. It is almost unheard of for a rich person to give their money to the poor. This scripture proves that there is such a thing as too much money and saying “when a camel passes through the eye of a needle” is a euphemism, like saying “when pigs can fly.”

The Relativity of Wealth

NYSE

Gross national income GNI of the ten poorest nations

1. Burundi; $280
2. Malawi; $320
3. Central African Republic; $370
4. Liberia; $370
5. Niger; $370
6. Madagascar; $400
7. Democratic Republic of Congo; $420
8. The Gambia; $440
9. Mozambique; $480
10. Guinea; $490

The trade volume of the New York Stock Exchange is incredible, literally billions of shares can be bought and sold, lost, created, or traded every day. Some of these shares are worth hundreds of dollars each! People that win big and lose big are in more danger than they think. They are endangering their very souls. The NYSE is replaceable with another system that I have already informed the establishment of.

The Relativity of Wealth

Top 10 Richest Countries In The World

1. Qatar GNI per capita: $128,060
2. Singapore GNI per capita: $90,570
3. Brunei Darussalam GNI per capita: $83,760
4. Kuwait GNI per capita: $83,310
5. United Arab Emirates GNI per capita: $74,410
6. Luxembourg GNI per capita: $72,690
7. Switzerland GNI per capita: $65,610
8. Hong Kong SAR GNI per capita: $64,100
9. Norway GNI per capita: $63,980
10. Ireland GNI per capita: $61,910

The GNI per Capita is the gross national income on average. If we average the top ten richest nations average yearly income per person, we get $78,840 per person per year on average. If we average the top ten poorest nations average yearly income per person, we get $357 per person per year on average. If we average the two, we get $39,598.50 per person per year, which is probably the accurate average salary for an average earner, such as a city worker. It is obvious money is so skewed because of oil resources.

The Relativity of Wealth

The greatest question is how do these poorest nations afford emergency equipment, like ambulances, fire engines, and police cars? How can these personnel afford their equipment? There is an artificiality to the entirety of the economic exchange. I have graduated from college and have accounting education. I can explain how this is working, by explaining the concept of inequality in the marketplace, but that would bore you. Jesus said it best, “you are all like children in the marketplace.” Everyone is. The environment we are in outside of our home is a marketplace, and we are all like children in it. So it is easy to understand with the mind of a child, that these rich nations are cheating these poor nations. The rich get richer and the poor get poorer is only a cliché if everyone stands by and watches. This is not the way things have to be. There is literally no rational explanation as to how these poorest of nations can even exist. Imagine living off of a few hundred dollars a year. How is that even possible? And that is with you working a government job? There is an artificial exchange rate that is causing this inequality.

Wealth

How much should a person make?

No person should make many more multiples in income than any other person.

God loves accurate weights and measures.

Commodities should be reasonably compensated for.

Think that paying much less for something than it is worth is only a good deal for the buyer.

What is a person ultimately worth?

One person is ultimately worth another person.

Then there is the value of our work.

Wealth and the Rich

Matthew 19:16-30 Modern English Version (MEV)

The Rich Young Man

¹⁶ Now one came and said to Him, “Good Teacher, what good deed shall I do to have eternal life?”

¹⁷ He replied to him, “Why do you call Me good? There is One who is good. But if you would enter life, keep the commandments.”

¹⁸ He said to Him, “Which ones?”

Jesus said, “You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness,^[a] ¹⁹ Honor your father and your mother,^[b] and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.^[c]”

²⁰ The young man said to Him, “All these I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?”

²¹ Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go and sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me.”

²² But when the young man heard this, he went away sorrowful. For he had great possessions.

²³ Then Jesus said to His disciples, “Truly, I say to you that it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴ And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁵ When His disciples heard this, they were greatly amazed, saying, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁶ But Jesus looked at them and said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

²⁷ Then Peter answered Him, “See, we have left everything and followed You. What then shall we have?”

²⁸ Jesus said to them, “Truly I say to you, in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹ And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for My name’s sake shall receive a hundred times as much and inherit eternal life. ³⁰ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

The lesson we learn

- To get eternal life, in other words to preserve the immortal soul, follow God's commandments.(The 10 specifically)
- The young rich man was a follower of God already.
- The young man was offered glory in the form of heavenly treasure.
- This came from the offer of being made perfect by giving his wealth to the poor.
- We are made perfect by having love for our enemies.
- Rich people have made enemies out of the poor throughout history.
- We can store treasure for ourselves in heaven by tithing to the poor directly.
- Following Jesus makes us perfect.
- It is hard for a rich man to follow God's commands on this Earth, which is entering the Kingdom of Heaven.
- Following God's commands is entering the Kingdom of Heaven.
- The saying :A camel passing through the eye of a needle," is just like the saying, " when pigs can fly."
- It is easier for a pig to fly than a rich person to get into Heaven.
- To clarify, the Kingdom of Heaven is on Earth, when we follow God's commands.
- The Kingdom of God is what we call Heaven, where we go, after we die, some of us for judgement.
- Some of us will sit as judges, judging the tribes of Israel, which we should all be part, I am Judah.
- We must be part of the tribes of Israel to enter Heaven, pick one, you get to decide your own fate.
- Whoever follows Jesus shares this good fate.
- We will be repaid 100-fold our sacrifice.
- There is a great economic reversal in Heaven.
- Rich people cannot get into Heaven, period.

People who are popular and Cannot get into Heaven.

Because they have too much money.

The first member of the family who was known to use the name "Rothschild" was Izaak Elchanan Rothschild, born in 1577. The name is derived from the German zum rothen Schild (with the old spelling "th"), meaning "at the red shield", in reference to the house where the family lived for many generations (in those days houses were designated not by numbers but by signs displaying different symbols or colours). The system of forced labour used by the Spanish in the New World decimated the native population; overwork, cruelty and especially disease led to a catastrophic decline in their numbers. The Spanish and Portuguese authorities encouraged their traders to use Africans for this work instead. Sir John Hawkins, a cousin of Sir Francis Drake, on his first voyage to the Caribbean, stopped off near Sierra Leone in West Africa where his crew violently hijacked a Portuguese slave ship. They seized 300 enslaved Africans who were then sold on to plantation owners in the Caribbean. The English had made their first foray into the trade in kidnapped Africans; by 1715 they would come to dominate it.

Paul Johnson writes "[T]he Rothschilds are elusive. There is no book about them that is both revealing and accurate. Libraries of nonsense have been written about them... A woman who planned to write a book entitled Lies about the Rothschilds abandoned it, saying: 'It was relatively easy to spot the lies, but it proved impossible to find out the truth.'" He writes that, unlike the court factors of earlier centuries, who had financed and managed European noble houses, but often lost their wealth through violence or expropriation, the new kind of international bank created by the Rothschilds was impervious to local attacks. Their assets were held in financial instruments, circulating through the world as stocks, bonds and debts. Changes made by the Rothschilds allowed them to insulate their property from local violence: "Henceforth their real wealth was beyond the reach of the mob, almost beyond the reach of greedy monarchs."^[15]

“Sorrow for the ages”

It has become quite evident that history is being glorified by the media in movies and on television. The Jewish media moguls have made dozens of movies about the holocaust for instance. While it is fascinating there are actual holocaust deniers, which is totally irrational, one must wonder how much of the proceeds from these films went to actual survivors of the holocaust? Why is it that some of these survivors' basic needs have not been being met by the wealthier Jewish community at large? These people are almost gone now, it is very sad the wealthy Jews care so little about actual people, yet parade around causes that generate strife and resentment, just to make a profit.

The Hollywood media has for decades been demonizing white men as confederate soldiers, Nazis, serial killers, child molesters, rapists, and especially sexually inadequate or deviant. This media enterprise has become an assault and the Caucasian must no longer play these deprecating roles for the Hollywood moguls. The money is not worth the defamation of the gentile character. Truthfully, it was never a Jew who ended the Nazis or the confederacy.

Additionally this creates a great divide in the gentile community. Now Germans are demonized as well as southern white men. This is a sort of afterwards propaganda. This is designed to garner sympathy for the victims of these people and at the same time make them a lot of money. Now there are people that want to tear down every confederate statue and ban the confederate flag. That price has been paid and more than 620,000 white men died in the civil war. Some estimate that as many as 750,000 died total. This is almost as many white man as Africans were imported into the U.S. However the southern man is still being demonized and then victimized by the Hollywood media in movies. Meanwhile the Hollywood Jews agenda promotes homosexuality in every direction. In a recent movie called, “The hateful eight,” there is a combination of the demonization of the southern white man as well as his homosexual subjugation by the African man, and subsequent murder by him. Why are there no blondes in ANY Star Wars films? Why is the blonde woman the queen of pornography? But not in Star Wars anywhere?

The Synagogue and prostitution

Excerpted from- The Story of “Zvi Migdal” – the Infamous Jewish Prostitution Cartel

The growing demand for women led to the establishment of “Zvi Migdal” – a large powerful prostitution cartel established and owned by Jewish immigrants from Poland. Named after one of the founders, it was one of the largest networks in the South America, with branches and connections in Shanghai, Johannesburg, Rio de Janeiro and many other places. At the peak of their activity they had tens of thousands of women working for them, some 2,000 brothels and a state of the art organizational mechanism working efficiently according to cruel mafia codes.

The main wing was established in Buenos Aires, concealed as a charity society. They were called Ruffians (Spanish for pimps), they traded and abused and enslaved unsuspecting Jewish women, just for money.

While still on the ship to Argentina they were locked, beaten, raped and starved, which the Jewish pimps referred to as their “re-education”. The Ruffians called these trips “remonte”, a term from the cattle trade. Landing in Buenos Aires they were herded to a house where they had to undress and be inspected by pimps, who sold them in auctions as sex slaves. The “owners” – as well as customers – included officials, judges, and journalists.

After intensive public pressure, hundreds of Jewish pimps were imprisoned and deported to Uruguay. Towards the end of the 1930’s “Zvi Migdal” eventually ceased to exist altogether. The scars in the masses of hearts and bodies of young women were however irrecoverable forever.

The Talmud and prostitution

“Better that a man secretly transgress and not publicly profane God’s name so that no one learns from his action,” according to Rabbi Hanina. “If a man sees that his [evil] inclination overwhelms him, he should go to a place where he is unknown, wear black clothing and cover himself with black, and do what his heart desires, so that he does not publicly profane God’s name,” argues Kiddushin 40A.

Modern interpretations of halakha generally take a much stricter view on prostitution. Sex outside of marriage is condemned, as is, by that same token, sex with a non-Jewish person. Rabbi Michael Gold explains that Orthodox Jews consider all sex outside of marriage as equivalent to prostitution. Sex for money is largely considered unethical by mainstream Jewish movements, though for years a minority group of progressive voices has advocated for legalizing prostitution and promoting the rights of all sex workers.

Interestingly, prostitution is legal in Israel. Simultaneously, Israel has a massive sex trafficking problem.

Babylonian Talmud, Tractate Menachot, page 43a The sages say: You can buy tzitzit from a non-Jewish merchant although they [the sages] said that it is forbidden to sell a Tallit with tzitzit to a non-Jew until one takes off the tzitzit. What is the reason? This is what they said: On account of a prostitute.” Rashi’s Commentary A person should not sell his tzitzit to a non-Jew lest that non-Jew wear those tzitzit in order to visit a Jewish prostitute, who might mistake that man for a Jew.

The Bible on prostitution

29 “Do not degrade your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will turn to prostitution and be filled with wickedness.
Leviticus 19:29

7 “They must not marry women defiled by prostitution or divorced from their husbands, because priests are holy to their God.
Leviticus 21:7

18 You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute[a] into the house of the Lord your God to pay any vow, because the Lord your God detests them both.
Deuteronomy 23:18-19

As one can see, the commandments in the Bible regarding prostitution are simple. Apparently women will become prostitutes all over if they are allowed or forced. Upon reflection, having sex as one's occupational specialty would be nice in a fantasy land, with no crime, disease, or responsibility. Thus if daughters are allowed to sell sex for money, they will do so all over the place. If we really read into the Jewish traditions against prostitution, they say it leads to incest. That is an amazing leap and could only occur if prostitution flourished for generations amongst them to be able to make this sort of observation into an actual teaching. Perhaps the world should be warned that rampant prostitution has led to an out break of accidental incest in the past, which may take some of the charm of the prostitute away. The Bible plainly speaks about how God feels about prostitutes. He detests them both. God says prostitution defiles a woman.

Prostitution in Mexico is legal under Federal law. Each of the 31 states enacts its own prostitution laws and policies.[13] 13 of the states of Mexico allow and regulate prostitution.[14]

Prostitution involving minors under 18 is illegal. Some Mexican cities have enacted "tolerance zones" ("zonas de tolerancia") which allow regulated prostitution and function as red light districts. In Tuxtla Gutiérrez, capital of the state of Chiapas, there is a state-run brothel at the Zona Galáctica.[15] In most parts of the country, pimping is illegal, although pimp-worker relationships still occur, sometimes under female pimps called "madrotas".[16] The government provides shelter for former prostitutes.[17]

Prostitution itself is not prohibited by national law,[37] but may be prohibited by local municipal ordinances.[38] Municipal ordinances may also prohibit the purchase of sexual services.[38] Related activities such as facilitating, promoting or giving incentives to a person to work as a prostitute (pimping) are illegal. The prostitution of children (those under 18) is also illegal.[37] Brothel ownership, however, is legal.[37] There are no specific laws against human trafficking, but any criminal offence that includes 'commerce in women or children' requires sentencing to be increased by 30%.[39]

Those municipalities that do not prohibit sex work often set up zones for sex workers away from schools and churches.[37] In the San Esteban area of San Salvador, 17 brothels were forcibly closed in August 1998 for being too close to schools and churches.[40]

Prostitution is currently legal in Honduras.[45] Because there is no law prohibiting prostitution, it is a prevalent form of occupation, especially amongst women and teenagers in cities. Although similar institutions such as brothel ownership and pimping are illegal, prostitution has remained largely unchecked by the government.

Lack of enforcement of current laws has created a profitable business out of prostitution - one in which both adults and children are a part. There are many causes to the high rates of involvement amongst the women and teens in cities, but the main reason is the high poverty levels. Participants see sex work as a viable option to escape poverty.

Main article: Prostitution in Overseas France § Guadeloupe

Despite the law, prostitution occurs in Guadeloupe. The old town centre of Pointe-à-Pitre is taken over by prostitutes from the Dominican Republic plying their trade after dark,[135][136] and abandoned houses are turned into makeshift brothels.[137] The Grand-Baie area in the Pointe-à-Pitre suburb of Le Gosier is also known for prostitution,[138] as is Saint-François, where many prostitutes work.[138] Dominican prostitutes also work from bars in Le Gosier.[139]

The USA and sex trafficking

The article published in 2019, "Combating Child Sex Trafficking in the United States," by Brooke Axtell, includes statistics stating "83% of sex trafficking victims in the United States are US citizens." [37] A study was held by the University of Texas that found that, "approximately 79,000 children have been placed in this field, just in Texas alone." [37] In the article, "Sex Trafficking" on Polarisproject.org, it states "From 2007 to 2017, the National Human Trafficking Hotline, operated by Polaris, has received reports of 34,700 sex trafficking cases inside the United States. In 2017, the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children estimated that 1 in 7 endangered runaways reported to them were likely sex trafficking victims. The International Labor Organization estimates that there are 4.8 million people trapped in forced sexual exploitation globally." [38] The article "Human Trafficking in America Among Worst in World Report" by Andrew Keiper includes "The Department of Justice provided more than $31 million for 45 victim service providers that offered services to trafficking survivors across the country. It was a demonstrable increase; the DOJ only provided $16 million to 18 organizations in 2017, according to the report." [39] In March 2019, the University of Cincinnati, Ohio, published a report that they'd identified 1,032 victims between 2014 and 2016 and another 4,209 individuals at risk of being trafficked during the same. I put forth to you that the following information is truth and in fact the very information that was garnered by Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. I challenge you to imagine a naked man and naked woman in a place where there is no money, no violence, and no knowledge of the concept of evil. Now wrestle them with each other and you will find the truth is there.

- Coitus is the root knowledge of good and brings new life into the world.
- Sodomy is the root knowledge of evil and brings death and disease into the world.
- Being faithful to God is the root of all good.
- Betraying God is the root of all evil.
- Childhood sex is the “original sin.”

Satan is red all over, God is not.

Revelation 4

- 1 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.”
- 2 At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it.
- 3 And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and ruby. A rainbow that shone like an emerald encircled the throne.
- 4 Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads.
- 5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. In front of the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits of God.
- 6 Also in front of the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back.
- 7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle.
- 8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. Day and night they never stop saying: “ ‘Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,’ who was, and is, and is to come.”
- 9 Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever,
- 10 the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:
- 11 “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.”

The throne of God commands power

This elaborate scene seems difficult for many people to understand. The bliss of the scene may cause people to mistake it for what it actually is. The animal cherubim are obviously servants to the throne as well as protectors. They also have eyes all over themselves to see throughout the animal kingdom. For even the animals go to judgement. However, never before has God been depicted as stuck on a throne permanently. What a great privilege it would be to throw your crown on the ground and get down and KNEEL repeatedly perpetually! Don't you think? What a huge buzz! Even if this caused permanent ecstasy, it would be monotonous and that would be unlike God's will for us. Plus you would think God would want to move around and do things from time to time. However, the main factor is that the one sitting on the throne does not really resemble the God of the Old Testament.

Who Is the Greatest?

18 ^tAt that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” ² And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them ³ and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you ^uturn and ^vbecome like children, you ^wwill never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ ^xWhoever humbles himself like this child is the ^wgreatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵ ^y“Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, ⁶ but ^zwhoever causes one of these ^alittle ones who believe in me to sin, ¹ it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Temptations to Sin

⁷ “Woe to the world for ^btemptations to sin! ² ^cFor it is necessary that temptations come, ^dbut woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! ⁸ ^eAnd if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into ^fthe eternal fire. ⁹ ^eAnd if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the ^fhell ³ of fire.

* There are four cherubim missing from the scene that have there three pairs of wings, one pair covering their eyes, one pair covering their feet, and they hover looking like children and saying, “Holy, Holy, Holy.” Does anyone else remember this?

Matthew 12:31

“So I tell you, every sin and blasphemy can be forgiven—except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which will never be forgiven.

What are we to do when?

1. Blaspheming the Holy Spirit is unforgiveable.
2. Leading a child into sin is unforgiveable.
3. Child prostitution and molestation is pandemic.
4. Islam cannot be the religion of God, because Mohammed had a child bride.

Satan sits on the throne of God and influences the spirit with out limit God is giving us.

This is where those alien thoughts come from that you do not want.

Examples of Satan influencing people in the Bible.

21From that time Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day. 22Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This shall never happen to You.” 23But He turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on God’s interests, but man’s.” Matthew 16:21-23 NIV

Even this scripture is a misquote, it should be: “ Get behind me Satan, for you are only concerned about the matters of this world, and not the weightier matters of the kingdom of God.” That is the essence of Satanism. Ignoring the “weighty” matters of the Kingdom of God, i.e. God’s commands and will for us which is to go to heaven, to become acceptable), and pursuing the worldly things that go contrary to God’s commands or will for us.

Examples of Satan influencing people in the Bible.

25He, leaning back thus on Jesus' bosom, said to Him, "Lord, who is it?" 26Jesus then answered, "That is the one for whom I shall dip the morsel and give it to him." So when He had dipped the morsel, He took and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. 27After the morsel, Satan then entered into him. Therefore Jesus said to him, "What you do, do quickly." 28Now no one of those reclining at the table knew for what purpose He had said this to him. 29For some were supposing, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus was saying to him, "Buy the things we have need of for the feast"; or else, that he should give something to the poor. 30So after receiving the morsel he went out immediately; and it was night.

John 13:25-30 NASB

As we know, Judas the Iscariot betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver, then committed suicide after returning the money. The money was then used to buy a plot of land to bury him in! The important thing to note is that Satan entered Judas and then he left to betray Jesus. This portion alone could be made into a book.

Examples of Satan influencing people in the Bible.

3 Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden’?”

2 The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, 3 but God did say, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’”

4 “You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman. 5 “For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

6 When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. 7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Genesis 3:3-7

Now do you understand the serpent in the garden of Eden? There was never a talking snake that did not have two legs! This is a parable for those who are enlightened to understand that these rebellious thoughts we have may be in fact external to our nature and we are letting evil in by not resisting them as foreign to ourselves. So the serpent in this case is representative of Satan. Though the “serpent” itself is simply more crafty than any other animal. Thus our “inner serpent” is not inherently evil, nor are snakes for that matter. However, if you fail to do what is right, then sin is crouching at the door, and you must master it. Thus the original sin, childhood sex.

The devil

In mainstream Christianity, the devil is usually referred to as Satan. This is because Christian beliefs in Satan are inspired directly by the dominant view of Second Temple Judaism, as expressed/practiced by Jesus, and with some minor variations. Some modern Christians^{[who?]} consider the devil to be an angel who, along with one-third of the angelic host (the demons), rebelled against God and has consequently been condemned to the Lake of Fire. He is described^{[attribution needed]} as hating all humanity (or more accurately creation), opposing God, spreading lies and wreaking havoc on their souls.

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Devil>

This is all very confusing and having the actual knowledge of who everyone is and how everything works, it becomes imperative that the information be revealed. The nature of creation and the celestial beings as well as their interactions with humankind and the world is very complex. In order to truly understand this, we must understand the actual cycle of life, death, and rebirth, as well as the origins/destinations of Heaven, Utter darkness, the Grave, and Hell, as well as our place in this world. Who most think of as “The Devil,” is actually referred to as the “little horn,” in the scriptures. The reason the word devil is not capitalized is because devils are individuals in a completely evil state of being.

¹⁹ “Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet; ²⁰ and the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, before which three fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke ^[i]pompous words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.

²¹ “I was watching; and the same horn was making war against the saints, and prevailing against them, ²² until the Ancient of Days came, and a judgment was made in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for the saints to possess the kingdom.

²³ “Thus he said:

‘The fourth beast shall be
A fourth kingdom on earth,
Which shall be different from all other kingdoms,
And shall devour the whole earth,
Trample it and break it in pieces.

²⁴ The ten horns are ten kings
Who shall arise from this kingdom.
And another shall rise after them;
He shall be different from the first ones,
And shall subdue three kings.

²⁵ He shall speak pompous words against the Most High,
Shall persecute^[i] the saints of the Most High,
And shall intend to change times and law.
Then the saints shall be given into his hand
For a time and times and half a time.

“The Little Horn”

And Paul says:

15And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross. 16Therefore let no one judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a festival, a New Moon, or a Sabbath. 17These are a shadow of the things to come, but the body that casts it belongs to Christ....

<https://biblehub.com/colossians/2-16.htm>

So we see here that St. Paul is stating that the crucifixion of the Messiah somehow negated God's covenants with man. Because of these teachings, people believe they do not need to observe the actual Holy days. The Messiah himself was observing Passover for the last supper and specifically told us all to remember him with bread and wine, a flesh and blood offering. Even more condemning to the teachings of St. Paul are the commands of the Messiah. We must also remember St. Paul persecuted Christians to the death even breathing threats of murder to women and children, and causing people to blaspheme.

Jesus says:

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸ For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore anyone who sets aside one of the least of these commands and teaches others accordingly will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Dagon

Dagon is the fish headed, fish tailed homosexual devil. Worshipped since ancient times and recognized as a serious adversary in the old testament. There have been wars against nations of his followers. His worship spreads like a plague among mankind, destroying the youth. Fish eat other fishes young and change sexes. This is what motivates the followers of Dagon.

Mjolnir and Menorah

In Norse mythology, Mjöl­nir (/ˈmjɔːlnɪər/;[1] Old Norse: Mjǫllnir, IPA: [ˈmjɔlːnir])[2] is the hammer of Thor, the Norse god associated with thunder. Mjöl­nir is depicted in Norse mythology as one of the most fearsome and powerful weapons in existence, capable of leveling mountains. In its account of Norse mythology, the Prose Edda relates how the hammer's characteristically short handle was due to a mistake during its manufacture.

The name is derived from a Proto-Germanic form *meldunjaz, from the Germanic root of *malanan "to grind" (*melwan, Old Icelandic meldr, mjǫll, mjǫl "meal, flour"),[3] yielding an interpretation of "the grinder; crusher".

Though most famous for its use as a weapon, Mjolnir played a vital role in Norse religious practices and rituals. Its use in formal ceremonies to bless marriages, births, and funerals is described in several episodes within the Prose Edda.[6]

In ancient times Scandinavians Thought people were Trolls, Elves, and fairies!

The Prose Edda book Skáldskaparmál describes an encounter between an unnamed troll woman and the 9th-century skald Bragi Boddason.

They call me a troll,
moon of the earth-Hrungnir [?]
wealth sucker [?] of the giant, destroyer of the storm-sun [?]
beloved follower of the seeress, guardian of the "nafjord" [?]
swallower of the wheel of heaven [the sun].
What's a troll if not that?[3]

A troll is a class of being in Norse mythology and Scandinavian folklore. In Old Norse sources, beings described as trolls dwell in isolated rocks, mountains, or caves, live together in small family units, and are rarely helpful to human beings.

Later, in Scandinavian folklore, trolls became beings in their own right, where they live far from human habitation, are not Christianized, and are considered dangerous to human beings. Depending on the source, their appearance varies greatly; trolls may be ugly and slow-witted, or look and behave exactly like human beings, with no particularly grotesque characteristic about them.

There is much confusion and overlap in the use of Old Norse terms jötunn, troll, þurs, and risi, which describe various beings. Lotte Motz theorized that these were originally four distinct classes of beings: lords of nature (jötunn), mythical magicians (troll), hostile monsters (þurs), and heroic and courtly beings (risi), the last class being the youngest addition. On the other hand, Ármann Jakobson is critical of Motz's interpretation and calls this theory "unsupported by any convincing evidence".[5] Ármann highlights that the term is used to denote various beings, such as a jötunn or mountain-dweller, a witch, an abnormally strong or large or ugly person, an evil spirit, a ghost, a blámaðr, a magical boar, a heathen demi-god, a demon, a brunnmigi, or a berserker.[6]

Racism and mythology

To this day there are white people that somehow believe they are not related to black people. Imagine what this reality was like a thousand years ago, then two thousand. There were always people who believed they were the only humans, be they red, black, white, or whatever. To this day Mexicans call themselves “La Raza,” which means “The race.”

The concept of the seven-fold spirit of God could be used to dispel some prejudice immediately, and ultimately mostly. In fact it would be like a hammer strike to the head. This would kill all monsters, reducing them to mere men and women of a vastly different appearance.

The English language Dictionary is being altered to mislead the masses. Some definitions need to be restated so the multitudes are not misled. Look at the definitions in the old dictionaries.

Definitions

Abomination: An utterly detestable thing. Something horribly despicable. A form of evil.

Ex.: For a priest to have sex with a boy is an abomination.

Fornication: A sex act of specifically amoral/immoral status. Multiple causes exist including these simple dynamics: Having sex in public with witnesses (including film presentations), Having sex with multiple partners simultaneously, Having multiple sex partners regularly (such as prostitution). This can apply to one partner and not the other. For example a virgin goes to a prostitute and has sex. The prostitute has fornicated, and the virgin has not. This is not hypocrisy, this is true morality. The prostitute has many sex partners and the virgin has not.

Perversion: A twisting of things from their natural purpose. A form of evil.

Ex.: It is perverted for a woman to have sex with an animal.

Sodomy: Anal sex. The violation of the anus with any object in the form of a sex act or violence. A form of evil.

Ex.: God rained fire and brimstone on Sodom and Gomorrah.

This is why there is the regulation that Levites must marry virgins. This is a Torah scripture and those Levites carried the Holy Ark and were the attendants to the Holy Tabernacle. They are the exception. However, even there is no Holy Ark anymore, this tradition could be reinvented for the temple districts.
